Rule 536.

Insert the following as Note 6 below this Rule.

"Note-6 Government Servants who are permitted to travel from their own headquarters to other places for inspection of documents relevant for the purpose of preparing their defence against the charges framed against them, will be entitled to travelling allowance as on tour without any daily allowance for halts on journeys or at the out-stations whether they are on duty or on leave or under suspension, when the authority competent to punish them is satisfied that -

- 1) the official records to be inspected are relevant and essential for the preparation of the defence statement, and
- ii) the original records could not be sent to the headquarters station of the Government servant or copies thereof could not be made out and sent.

In the case of Government servants who are not under suspension at the time they undertake the journey, the period spent in transit to and fro and the minimum period of stay required at the place where official records are made available for perusal shall be treated as duty or leave according as the Government servant is on duty or on leave at that time. In the case of those under suspension, who are subsequently reinstated in service, the period shall be treated as duty, leave or otherwise in accordance with the orders passed by the competent authority, regulating the period of suspension".

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

MALATI TAMBAY-VAIDYA,
Under Secretary to Government.
